

July 13, 2011

Kemah Merchant's Meeting Minutes

Minutes read and accepted.

Old Business:

Need to continue Merchant Mixers. July mixer to be at Aroma Garden Creations
July 27th 6:00PM

New Business:

Website hosting expiring; motion made and seconded to renew Stan's web page

Domino: Out of brochures but new ones have been approved. No money to pay for them at this time. Can use Texas Live to promote Christmas in Kemah. Can go on website to download old map if necessary.

Ready to go live – Tourism website. Eventually will be able to logon and put your shop on it. It's like a blog-no reviews allowed-general info only. End of July or first of August. Waiting for final proof to be emailed to merchants.

Art show October 14th and 15th suggested.

Gulf Coast Film Festival: Sylvia's suggested doing Sunday the 16th as well and to do a mixer for the artists.

Claire suggested a Cake Wheel and will be responsible for getting wheel for us.

9th St. and Bradford to be blocked off 9am -6PM Sept. 17 for Keith's Ronald McDonald fundraiser.

Rebecca Collins for Art Walk: Domino will talk to her about blocking off an area for children.....suggestion was made to use Breezeway in Toucan Alley.

Christmas in Kemah: December 18th starts.

Still need dates and events. Last year we did it all month and through the week before Christmas. Suggested Choirs, Bell Choirs, young performers and to contact music departments at schools.

Friday Nov. 18th Open House

Goodie bags for Christmas in Kemah: Robin Curtis volunteered to fill those.

Sanda will request those funds for open house and goody bags.

Claire suggested "Impromptu Actors"

Will have Santa and Reindeer

Tommy Hathaway is our Santa

NEED SNOW THIS YEAR!!

Need to ask David about using his carriage for bringing Santa in instead of Firetruck this year.

Meeting adjourned.\